-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim(s) 1-3 is/are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lunde et al. (US 4,212,686), on the same grounds as stated in the Office Action of 23 November 2005.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 27 February 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Firstly, the Examiner notes that he set forth a very clear interpretation of the claims on page 2 of the Office Action of 23 November 2005. In response, the applicant urges an alternative interpretation of the claims. The Examiner refers applicant to MPEP 2111, which states that claims must be given their broadest reasonable interpretation. Applicant always has the opportunity to amend the claims during prosecution, and broad interpretation by the examiner reduces the possibility that the claim, once issued, will be interpreted more broadly than is justified. In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ 541, 550-51 (CCPA 1969). Therefore, the Examiner stands on his interpretation of the claims as a reasonable interpretation. The applicant has the ability to clarify the issue by proper use of punctuation and conjunctions that would clearly set forth which elements are required.

Secondly, the Examiner asserts that he must stand by his interpretation because the interpretation asserted by the applicant (as understood by the Examiner) is still not fully developed. Although the applicant sets forth a reasonable interpretation of the beginning of the claim, the applicant does not explain why there are two "and" conjunctions in line 4 of claim 1. The Examiner's alternative interpretation gives meaning to each of the conjunctions.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
